Subject: AQUIND electricity interconnector exemption request

Dear Sirs

AQUIND electricity interconnector exemption request

I write regarding the above referral. Given the need to continue to significantly grow housing supply in the UK, and to enhance energy supply security, I want to see better grid connectivity built with private investments.

The opportunity to connect the UK with additional supply, and markets, through cross-channel interconnection should help with both of these concerns and I hope such projects will be successfully delivered.

Yours faithfully

Andrew
