1. ABOUT THE AGENCY

The European Union Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators (hereinafter referred to as “ACER”) is a European Union (“EU”) body, legally established by Regulation (EU) No 2019/942¹ and operational since 2011. ACER is central to the integration and well-functioning of the EU’s electricity and natural gas markets.

1.1 Our purpose

Our overall purpose is achieving a transition of the European energy system in line with the political objectives set at leaders’ level, reaping the benefits of increased energy market integration across Europe, and securing low-carbon supply at least possible cost for European businesses and citizens.

The Agency promotes:

- More competitive, integrated energy markets, offering consumers more choice,
- An efficient energy infrastructure and network, enabling energy to move freely across borders, the integration of renewable sources, and therefore ensuring a higher degree of security of supply,
- A monitored and transparent energy market securing consumers fair prices and limitation of market abusive behaviours.

¹ Regulation (EU) No 2019/942 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 05 June 2019 (recast).

In this respect, ACER:

- Complements and coordinates the work of the national energy regulatory authorities (NRAs),
- Participates in the development of European network rules,
- Takes, under certain conditions, binding individual decisions on terms and conditions for access and operational security for cross-border infrastructure, on cross-border cost allocation for Projects of Common Interest and on terms and conditions or methodologies for the implementation of network codes,
- Gives advice on broader energy related issues to the European institutions,
- Monitors the internal markets in electricity and natural gas and reports on its findings,
- Monitors trading in wholesale energy products to detect and deter market abuse and ensure the integrity and transparency of EU wholesale energy markets in accordance with REMIT i.e., Regulation (EU) 2024/1106 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 April 2024 amending Regulations (EU) No 1227/2011 and (EU) 2019/942 as regards improving the Union's protection against market manipulation on the wholesale energy market.

1.2 ACER's evolving role

ACER is on a significant growth trajectory, marked by an expanding number and array of tasks in the recent years. Our role as a collaborative agency within the framework of the EU's NRAs remains at the heart of our mission, complimented by a range of tasks that span various aspects of the EU energy system, encompassing monitoring of energy flows, wider system needs, and so much more.

ACER is currently at a critical point, playing a key role in advancing EU energy market integration and bolstering market integrity and transparency; efforts that strike us as more crucial than ever. Our goal is to contribute with our capacities, insights, and creativity as an EU energy regulatory agency to a transition of the energy system that is affordable, secure, and decarbonised – a transition that takes place at the pace set by leaders across the EU.

ACER has been entrusted with additional responsibilities under the "Clean Energy for all Europeans" legislative package as well as the recently adopted legislative packages focusing on Gas Decarbonisation, REMIT reform, and Electricity Market Design, aiming to bring transformative changes and further evolving the European energy landscape.

1.3 Who we are

ACER currently employs around 175 staff (statutory and non-statutory) and has an approved annual budget of € 32,602,073 in 2024. With the new responsibilities being assigned to its mandate, the Agency anticipates a significant growth in the forthcoming years both in terms of financial and human resources, expecting more than 200 staff by 2025 and significantly more in the years after that.

Accordingly, earlier this year ACER was reorganised to accommodate these new tasks and growth, with the Agency now comprising seven Departments: Coordination, Operations and Legal; Electricity; Energy System Needs; Gas Hydrogen and Retail; Market Information and Transparency; Market Surveillance and Conduct; and REMIT Investigations (the latter, effective as of 2025). In addition, two wider, cross-organisational teams report directly to the Director, namely Strategy Delivery & Communications and HR & Facility Management. An updated ACER organigram is available on our website.
